FROM THE EDITOR! "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

We are in dangerous times. States not allowed to defend themselves according to the Supreme Court 5 to 4? The borders are wide open with no idea who the hell is come here and no idea what their intentions are? We have our elected representatives in Washington debating on cutting Social Security and Medi-care because they need to cut entitlements? Wait a moment shit for brains, representatives work for us. Secondly, Social Security has been paid into for decades by everyone in this country except the Global Wet-backs who contribute nothing but grief. The well laid plan on the left and the corrupt bastards on the right is working at a speed that is amazing. Trump scares the hell out of the Swamp. They know that after his first term experience in the Office of the President he will be loaded for bear. The China Virus and vaccine was pushed on us regardless of the hazards or dangers from taking the JAB! Now with the new X-virus scare that the CDC and WHO are putting out there you need to question the timing? Before the elections next November, these slim buckets in Washington with the help of the CDC and WHO will demand you get the New JAB and accept the lock-downs like a good little moron. They pulled this shit on us once, they will try the same crap again. We need to take the time to read or have someone read us the great Constitution that our forefathers put in place to keep this from happening. If you don't understand it, get someone with an IQ greater than 86 to explain it to you. The ATF has a 1300 page law that is being slid through behind our backs to remove your rights to own firearms. If the Law Makers are not pulling something underhanded why do they fear the armed American Citizen? If you keep sitting on your hands and do nothing, I suggest you practice eat-out of trash cans so when you have to you will already be accustomed to it! Lock and Load!
