FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"
To start with, the CDC says it is to early to lift the China Virus isolations yet despite Doctors saying that it isn't and wasn't necessary for lock downs to start with. Mayorkus impeached, like that is going to change anything for the better. We are only seeing saber rattling because it is an election year. The so called aid to Ukraine, to the tune of $113.4 billion could have given each legal American in our country several million dollars each. The issue that our country is facing at this point is government stepping on more and more of our rights daily. We now have the young adults that raised their children with the belief that everyone gets a trophy starting to run things. When you give out awards and rewards to individuals who's only contribution was showing up, what could possibly go wrong? I have had people ask me why my editorial is harsh, combative, vulgar, and that I was causing people discomfort when reading my personal thoughts that I put down in writing. My thought on this. If you are fearful that standing up for your rights and the rights of others is a bad thing, you just might be the problem. If you think that defending the constitution is a bad thing, you might just be the problem. If you think that only using socially and politically correct language is the solution to what is ailing us, you might just be the problem. Americans who served in the armed forces defended every citizen of this country to have their own personal beliefs. We defended every citizens right to believe in the chance to reach for the stars and obtain the American Dream! We defended your right to believe in God the Creator or to believe that life on earth just happened by chance! Now the wake up call! We defended your rights on many different choices in life, but we did not defend anyone's right to committ TREASON. So get that straight cupcake when you want to tell me how my choice in words is not acceptable to you.
