"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"
The Untouchables:
Why the System Shields Obama, Comey, and the Clintons""The American people are fed up. For years,we have watched Barack Obama, James Comey, and the Clintons—Hillary and Bill—waltz through scandals that would sink anyone else. Hillary's private email server hid thousands of messages, some classified, yet she walked free. Comey, the FBI's golden boy, called her "extremely careless" but recommended no charges, only to flip-flop days before the 2016 election. Bill's cozy tarmac chat with AG Loretta Lynch reeked of backroom deals. And Obama? His shadow looms over it all, with whispers of influence peddling and a "treasonous conspiracy" to kneecap Trump's campaign. To millions, they're guilty as hell. So why are they still untouchable?""The evidence is madden- ing. The FBI's 2018 IG report exposed Comey's mishand- ling of the email probe, with agents texting bias and Lynch's impartiality in question. Declassified documents, like the 2020 Senate Judiciary releases, show the Steele dossier—used to fuel the Russia probe—was a shaky mess, yet it was pushed anyway. X posts scream about DOJ insiders and whistleblowers ready to flip, pointing fingers at Obama and Comey for orchestrating a "deep state" plot. The vibe is clear: the system bends over backward to protect its own. ""But here's the rub: vibes aren't verdicts. Proving criminal intent is a legal Mt. Everest. Comey's decisions look spineless, not indictable. Hillary's emails were reckless, but the FBI found no clear crime. Bill's tarmac stunt was shady, yet no paper trail proves a deal. Obama's too slick to leave evidence of a grand conspiracy. Without a Snowden-level leak, indictments stay a pipe dream. ""This isn't about letting them off. It's about a justice system that seems rigged—where elites skate while regular folks face the hammer. The anger on X, from #LockThemUp to calls for accountability, isn't just noise; it's a demand for fairness. Until hard proof surfaces, though, we're left with a bitter truth: the untouchables keep winning, and trust in the system keeps crumbling. I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902
