FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"
Trump's Davos Dominance and Bessent's Bold Blast

President Trump stormed Davos like a force of nature, calling out global elites with unyielding strength. In his 2026 address, he skewered French drug pricing, Spanish tariffs, Chinese trade tricks, and "loser" windmills, while demanding NATO fairness and teasing Greenland ownership. Trump didn't mince words: "If we're not at the table, we're on the menu." His no-apologies America First stance reminded the world that U.S. leadership is back—bold, unbowed, and ready to deal from strength. Fact-checkers scrambled, but Trump's vision resonated, exposing the forum's hypocrisy. "Closer to home, Treasury nominee Scott Bessent unleashed a fiery takedown of California Governor Gavin Newsom, branding him "greasy-haired" and accusing him of ruining the state with failed policies. Bessent mocked Newsom's "knee pads" for meeting Soros' son, implying elite sellouts while California crumbles under crime, homelessness, and taxes. Bessent's callout echoes millions frustrated with Newsom's leadership—prioritizing global agendas over Golden State citizens. Both Trump and Bessent remind us: true strength calls out corruption, putting the American Citizens first.
