FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Next week is Thanksgiving and we as a nation always had many things to be grateful for. For over 247 years our life here has been the envy of the world. We have always had the ability to help the oppressed in the world. Now that we have set the example for other nations to be free, the evil that is out there has been really busy for decades to take that away. The problem is not that other countries will take it from us, it will be our own elected representatives that are taking us down. We have become to weak to stand up to the degenerate policies that are attacking our morals and values where it causes the most damage. It is our children that they have turned into mindless little monsters that will betray their own families in the name of inclusion. When you have LGBTQ protesting over the treatment of Hamas and the Gaza Strip you know that the brainwashed into thinking that these animals need to be treated with kindness. Well wake up call you Woke dumb bastards. The terrorist group Hamas will take your queer ass and pitch you off the closest roof. If not that, they will stone you to death or just cut off your stupid heads to send to your parents for a Christmas gift. When you are dealing with third world mongrels, the only thing that they understand is a brutal heel of a boot on their throat as you take them to what ever after life they think they will enjoy better. I don't like violence and don't think that is the answer in life, but there is a time when you have to think about your loved ones and do the hard job it takes to protect them. I also had become for tolerant over the years and had the belief that you had a right to choose your lifestyle and live it without fear. Now, I can see that was a mistake and and know deep in my soul I need to get back in touch with my values from childhood. You can be a queer as you want to be, but understand one fact, I and others like me will strike back ten fold.
